

Special low prices on Suits, Coats, Dresses, Bathing Suits, etc. A veritable feast of bargains in Meyers ready-to-wear section

Our 648th Wednesday Surprise Sale

WIDE EMBROIDERY
FLOUNCING

at 19c a yard

Snowy embroidery in pretty designs will be sold at this small price next Wednesday. An extra good value at double this price. Think of buying such wide embroidery for 19c. It is 25 inches wide and there are about 15 dainty designs to select from. Every woman will be interested in this event. Be on hand early. The sale commences at 8:30 Wednesday, the 23rd. One day only. See the window display.

Children's Dresses Greatly Reduced

We are reducing our stock of Children's Dresses, hence these low prices. Neat, well made dresses in all the popular wash fabrics of very good designs and colorings. Any mother who has children to clothe will be particularly pleased to buy dresses of the Meyers quality at such reductions as we offer. The dresses are in many styles and in sizes from 3 to 14 years. Select from our large stock this week at 20 per cent less than regular prices.

A Surprising Value--Women's Suits in Advance Fall Models at $15.00 and $17.50

We were fortunate in securing such excellent suit values as these. They're the very latest long coat models in the newest fabrics and colorings, and in many stores they would retail for $20.00. We will be glad to show them to you any time. An advance showing of women's suits in the new Parisian styles up to $50.00 are now ready for those seeking the coming season's garments. Ask to see them in our Ready-to-Wear Section.

A SALE OF PARASOLS

Salem women will be glad of this opportunity to get a new stylish parasol at such greatly reduced prices. Our assortment comprises the latest styles in dainty coverings and finishes. Fitted with neat handles and well put together frames. Your choice of the entire stock at a reduction of 20 per cent. Look for a big window display tomorrow.

A strong, handsome Drucker Trunk and a Lilly Suit Case and Hand Bag for that outing trip. They're the best to be had for the price. (Shown on the second floor.)

Manager Waters, of the Grand opera house, went to Portland Friday especially to see John Mason in "As a Man Thinks," and said to a Journal reporter yesterday that it is one of the strongest and best-acted plays he has seen in his many years of theatrical work. The story starts with the rise of the first curtain, and Mr. Waters hopes that everyone will be in their seats before the curtain rises, to insure a complete understanding of the plot. John Mason is the first person to appear on the stage, and the action commences at once with no prologue. The Grand will hold a capacity house tonight, as is borne out by the very heavy ticket sale of Friday and Saturday. The curtain rises at 8:30, sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Calder, who live on the Wallace road north of Salem, were host and hostess to a delightful dinner party last Wednesday. The guests were taken by automobile, through the courtesy of Oscar E. Fry, to the beautiful country home, whose very situation and surroundings make it a charming place to visit. The table was spread under the maples in the yard, where the delicious dinner, prepared by the hostess, was much enjoyed. The afternoon was spent with music and friendly chat, and with games, finally ending in a general currant-picking bee, as a result of which some of the guests went home the richer. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Calder were "Grandma" Chapman, Mrs. M. C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar E. Fry and son, Miss Nan Wilson and Mr. Chas. Kokuke, all of Polk county; Mrs. M. W. Bunker and daughter, Miss Helen, of Los Angeles, and Rev. H. T. Babcock and family, of Salem.
